"FOURTH KENTUCKIAN" SHOT.

Deputy Sheriff Walker Fatally Wounded By William Osborne.

Beattyville, Ky., Nov. 3.—[Special.]—Walker Wilson, Deputy Sheriff of Owsley county, was shot by William Osborne last night on Meadow creek and is not expected to live. Wilson is a young man and has been Deputy Sheriff of Owsley county for six years. He was on Meadow creek electioneering in the interest of Harvey Rice, the Republican nominee for Sheriff, when Osborne sent for him to come to his house.

When Wilson got to the house Osborne, Wilson said to-day, drew his pistol and fired without cause. Osborne has not been captured, and to-night men are in the woods on his trail. A man and woman were brought to Booneville and placed in jail, held as accessories. There is bitter feeling toward Osborne on account of the shooting. Young Wilson is one of the most popular young men in the county and was to be Rice's deputy. He was a sergeant in the Fourth Kentucky Regiment under Col. Colson.
