X State of Kentucky Warren County etc

On this 24th day of June 1833 personally appeared in open court before the county court of said county now sitting Phineas Case aged 69 years a resident of the county and State of aged 69 years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following Declarations in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832 That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated - That he was born on the 10th day of the year 1764 in the county of Halifax Virginia That about the 5th day of March ^{will as} he can recollect ~~he entered~~ in the year 1779 he enlisted in the army of the United States under Capt James Shelly and served under ~~Captain~~ Shelly as Capt & under Richard Brashier as Lieutenant and Garrett Williams as Ensign and John Montgomery as Capt who was under the command of Genl Rogers Clark in the line of the State of Va. he resided at the time of his enlistment in the county of Henry Va. and went on a visit to Watston River where he enlisted at the Long Islands - at that place he took water descended the Tennessee River - down that to the Ohio - down the Ohio to the Mississippi River and up that River to the Kaskaskia River and up that river 6 miles to the Illinois Savans as then called, continued there about 30 days then he went with the troops in Boats down to the Ohio River and up the ~~same~~ to the mouth of the Great Wabash and up that River to where Post Vincent is now situated, which was called then A Post where he remained all the summer of 1779 except about one month when he went further up the War back against the Indians he states that he remained at there (A Post) during the fall and winter of id year, and for guarding Pack horses was promised one dollar per day for 90 days but never received a cent for that nor for any of his services during the Revolutionary. In March 1780 he was sent on a ^{express} ~~from~~ ^{by} Col John Montgomery to the Illinois ^{Country} ~~Country~~ ^{where} he remained till he was discharged ^{by} Col Montgomery in June 1780. He entered for the term of one year but was detained more than 15 months before he was discharged. he states that about twelve years after this he was discharged Col Montgomery called at his house where he now lives and got his discharge from him for the purpose of getting the pay and land that were promised him. ~~Montgomery~~ ^{Montgomery} was shortly after ~~called~~ ^{by the Indians and} ~~he could never proceed his discharge again nor land or pay~~ after he received his discharge ~~as before~~ in 1780 he volunteered at the Illinois town on the 1st of July 1798 and served for 60 or 65 days and served under Col Montgomery; he went up the Mississippi to the mouth of Illinois river thence up as river to a little French village, there they left the Boats and with Packhorses went to River river against the Indians - but they had all fled - they returned to the Boats - he states that during part of this time for want of provision they were compelled part of the time to subsist on a dead horse. for this term he got only a verbal discharge from Montgomery at what is now called St Louis. He states that he cannot say precisely how long he served but he knows that he will be safe in making oath that he did not serve a shorter period than seventeen months - His age was recorded in his fathers Bible in the State of Virginia. he lived in Henry County Va when he entered the army immediately after ^{the Revolutionary} War he moved to Davidson County Tennessee - from thence to Warren County ^{the} ~~of~~ where he has resided ever since. he knows of no documentary evidence of his services. nor any persons by whom he could prove his services except one Saml McGowan whose affidavit he has procured he was in no battle the officers he knew in the Revolution except those already named were Capt Thomas Quirk - Capt

Taylor. Capt Lewis Capt Todd

The following are the names of the some of the persons living in his neighborhood who can testify to his Character for veracity and their as to belief as to his services in the Revolution

Dec 13. 1843,

State of Kentucky Warren County Set This day Barbary Cox, widow & relict of Phineas Cox Deed late a pensioner of the United States on the Roll of the Kentucky Agency as appears from the certificate of Lewis Caff Secretary of War dated 28 Jan'y 1834, personally came into the Warren County Court-being a court of record for the State aforesaid & for the purpose of availing herself of the pension laws of the United States applicable to her case did in open Court-being first duly sworn, depose & declare that she is the widow & relict of the said Phineas Cox, that she & the said Phineas were married at a very early time to wit before the close of the Revolutionary War in what is now ~~Washington~~ ^{Jefferson} County in the State of Tennessee & that she remained the wife of said Phineas from the time of their marriage up to the time of his death & raised by him a family of twelve children the eldest of whom is now fifty nine years of age. The said Barbary states that she is now eighty years of age that she does not believe there were any records of her marriage preserved as it took place in Tennessee before there was much regular government and when the people the few that were there lived in forts. She refers to the declaration of her said husband on file in the War Department for the nature & character of his services rendered in the Revolutionary War & for which the pension was granted him & she makes his pension certificate a part of this her declaration. She states that her said husband died in this County on the 18th day of May 1842 & that he had lived in this county many years before his death & had represented it in the Legislature of this State. She states that she is now domiciled in the County of Warren & State of Kentucky & expects to spend the remainder of her life in it.

She therefore prays that this her declaration signed by her hand on this 27th day of November 1843, with her proof in support thereof, may be certified under the seal of the Court to the War Department
